

Banns

The publication of banns in the parish bulletin on three successive Sundays and the prayer at Communion the week before the ceremony are ways of establishing your intent to marry in the Church community.