The greatest comfort during our sorrow was the expressions of sympathy conveyed to us in many ways. We deeply appreciate your thoughtfulness and our family thanks you most sincerely.

A Letter from Heaven

*To my dearest family, some things I's like to say...
But first of all to let you know, that I arrived okay.
I'm writing this from heaven. Here I swell with God above.
Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love*

*Please do no be unhappy just because I'm out of sight.
Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night..
That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through,
God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you."*

"It's good to have you back again, you were missed while you were gone.

*As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.
I need you here badly, you're part of my plan.
There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man."*

*God gave me a list of things that he wished for me to do.
And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.
And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight.
God and I are closest to you...in the middle of the night.*

*When you're walking down the street,
and you've got me on your mind;
I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind.
And when it's time for you to—from that body to be free, remember you're not going... you're coming here to me.*
